

Driving Thoughtful Change Toward Inclusive Language

- Words Matter
- Consider the impact our language has on others, particularly when the words we choose amplify our differences and inequities
- Having awareness of the language we use, and how it impacts those around us, is essential as we move towards eliminating our own conscious and unconscious biases

